TWO

SUNDAY
MATINEES

All My Sons July 17-August 1, 2009

By Arthur Miller Directed by Lenore Stjerne
This tremendously impressive drama by one of our finest playwrights recently enjoyed a critically acclaimed revival on Broadway. Set just after WWII, the play is an insightful and emotional journey into family secrets, love, loyalty and the responsibility we owe to our fellow man. This outstanding and still timely drama is electrifying in its intensity.
CONTAINS MATURE SUBJECT MATTER

Dearly Beloved September 11-26, 2009

By Jessie Jones, Nicholas Hope Directed by Greg Z. Newcomb
And Jamie Wooten
The Futrelle Sisters are throwing a wedding and the rumor mill in Fayro, TX, is working overtime. No surprise there, the sisters have never been strangers to gossip. They did survive the scandalous break up of their almost-famous gospel singing group, The Sermonettes. This hilarious and heart-warming comedy follows a wacky family as they desperately attempt to pull off these nutty nuptials.

Killjov * November 6-21, 2009

By Jerry Mayer Directed by Tom Hardy
Carol is being driven crazy by her ex-husband, Victor and his new wife, who employ every trick in the book to end her alimony. Her quirky kids work at Victor's restaurant and he bullies them endlessly. When Carol has a passionate affair with Victor's lawyer, they decide Victor has to die, and the audience cheers its agreement! An unpredictable, hilarious comedy/thriller with clever and witty dialogue.

Footlight Frenzy * January 15-30, 2010

By Ron House, Biz White Directed by Tom Mynar
Alan Shearman and Bud Slocumb
This slapstick farce is fast and furious theatrical fun of the first order! In a desperate attempt to save their bankrupt school, an inexperienced PTA group valiantly mounts an ambitious benefit play. Hysterical direction by a has-been director and the group's questionable talent turn the production into shambles. Laughs galore as these frantic thespians face many comic tribulations.

Anything Goes * March 12-27, 2010

Music & Lyrics by Cole Porter Directed by Kirk Larson
Original Book by PG Wodehouse, Guy Bolton, Howard Lindsay, Russel Crouse
New Book by Timothy Cruise and John Weidman
The age-old tale of boy-meets-girl and the complications that ensue intrigue every audience and no musical puts in on stage better than this one. Terrific Cole Porter score includes, "It's De-Lovely", "I Get A Kick Out of You" and "You're The Top." Great music, spirited dancing and sparkling comedy assure that all romances are sorted out and disaster is averted aboard the ship where "Anything Goes!"

Romantic Comedy * May 14-29, 2010

By Bernard Slade Directed by Karla Abrams
A charming and light-hearted comedy about love and friendship. Arrogant Jason is a successful author of romantic comedies whose collaborator is retiring. Enter Phoebe, mousy schoolteacher, budding playwright. Fame and success are theirs for ten years before Jason's world falls apart. The pair bitterly separate. Then reenter a chic and successful in her own right Phoebe and guess the ending!
