

Westminster Community Theatre
proudly presents

By Michael Cristofer

Directed by Lenore Stjerne
Assistant Director Brandon Ferruccio

1977 Pulitzer Prize and Tony Award Winner for Best Play. This powerful, moving and groundbreaking drama follows three terminally ill patients as they and their families cope with living and dying. Provocative, sometimes funny, often sad, truthful and unflinching portrait of the human condition.

Contains adult subject matter, language. For mature audiences.

Produced by special arrangement with Samuel French, Inc.

July 15-30, 2011

Fridays & Saturdays at 8:00pm
General Admission - $17.00 Seniors - $15.00

Sunday Matinee at 2:00 pm on July 17th & 24th
Children (under 15), Students w/ID $10.00

Westminster Community Theatre is located at 7272 Maple Street, Westminster.

Reservations

714-527-5546

(10am – 10pm, Monday – Saturday)

www.wctstage.org

Featuring the talents

Richard DeVicariis

Richard Comeau

Beth Titus

Kimberly Wooldridge

Laura Flores

Tara Golson

Christian Hutcherson

Robert Dominguez

Kathleen Fabry