The Shadow Box ‡ July 15-30, 2011

By Michael Cristofer Directed by Lenore Stjerne
1977 Pulitzer Prize and Tony Award Winner for Best Play.
This powerful, moving and groundbreaking drama follows three terminally ill patients as they and their families cope with living and dying. Provocative, sometimes funny, often sad, truthful and unflinching portrait of the human condition.

‡Contains adult subject matter, language. For mature audiences.

Hav Fever September 9-24, 2011 By Noel Coward Directed by Patricia Miller

Hoping for a quiet weekend in the country with some guests, a novelist and his wife, a retired actress, find that an impossible dream when their high-spirited children appear with guests of their own. The “quiet week-end” comes to an exhausting and hilarious finale worthy of great farce. A sparkling and sophisticated comedy by the master of the genre.

Christmas Belles November 4-19, 2011 By Jessie Jones, Nicholas Hope Directed by Greg Z. Newcomb and Jamie Wooten

The second installment of the trilogy that completes the saga of the Futrelle Sisters. A church Christmas program spins hilariously out of control in this Southern farce about squabbling sisters, family secrets, a surly Santa, a vengeful sheep and a reluctant Elvis impersonator. Many laughs and a few tears ensue as the feuding sisters find a way to pull together once again.

Leading Ladies * January 13-28, 2012

By Ken Ludwig Directed by Tom Mynar
In this hilarious comedy, down on their luck English actors are performing Shakespeare in PA. They hear of an old lady who is about to die and leave her fortune to her long lost English nephews. They decide to impersonate them and get the cash. But, the relatives aren't nephews, they're nieces! Laughter abounds when the guys try to get rich as “Maxine and Stephanie.”

The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee March 9-24, 2012 Music & Lyrics by William Finn Directed by Kirk Larson Book by Rachel Sheinkin

This Tony Award winning hit musical is a hilarious tale of overachievers' angst chronicling the experience of six adolescent outsiders vying for a spelling championship. A quirky, yet charming cast of outsiders find a place where they can stand out and fit in at the same time and learn winning isn't everything and losing doesn't make you a loser. Contains adult humor.

The Hollow* May 18-June 2, 2012 By Agatha Christie Directed by Brandon Ferruccio

Another classic mystery from the queen of the genre that will keep WCT audiences guessing until the final scene. An unhappy game of romantic “follow the leader” explodes into a crime one weekend at The Hollow, the home of British gentry. A doctor and his romantic entanglements are at the center of a gathering emotional storm that will bring murder to The Hollow.
